E NATION.—In our article on the Receipts and conditures, last week, we showed from the outclai reports of the Auditors for the years 1861; not "98, that the expenditures of the county were $120,000 more in 1868 than in 1861. The fact is incontrovertable. So to is the statement that in 1861 the taxes were levied by a Republican Board of Commissioners and Auditor, and 1885 they were levied by a Democratic Board of Commissioners and Auditor. If we were disposed to act in this matter as the Gazette did upon the subject of the Delinquent List, we would leave it rest there for such explanation as the organ of these Democratic officials might be able to produce, but we have no disposition to quibble or equivocate as that beautiful sheet is in the habit of Going, and as it did do when it declared that Special Astices.

To Consump.ives. screen his partisans from a fair share of the responsibility for this increased expenditure, instead of calmly pointing out the evil and advising the remedy, is more of a demagogue than a statesman.

It is an easy thing Mr. Gazette to talk or write about stealing but, in this county your party has done more stealing than any other party. It is easy to talk or write about increased taxes, but in Belmont County the Democratic party levies these taxes, and are responsible as far, at least, as any other party, for their increase.
